Getaway at Killarney...reminiscences

Judging by the feedback, a terrific weekend was enjoyed by all. As you can see in the photo there was a huge rollup of members, some with their partners.

This was the opening event on the Friday night at the Killarney Hotel where we all gathered for dinner and drinks followed by a “chilly” walk back to the accommodation.

A big vote of thanks goes to the staff at the Killarney Hotel for their friendly service. Thank you Clare and Callum, Proprietors at the Killarney Sundown Motel and Caravan Park and also Bronwyn and Kevin, Proprietors at Killarney View Cabins and Caravan Park. Wonderful accommodation and super friendly service. Callum even cooked our pizzas for us on Saturday night.

Our mate Macca at Bull’s Trading Post happily and patiently posed for us portrait shooters on the Saturday morning and we ended up meeting Macca’s whole extended family…great fun!

From that point on it was basically a “do your own thing” and you can see from all the shots taken that full advantage was made of the beautiful Killarney Region.

Thankyou all for coming and showing such enthusiasm…where to next hey! Somewhere warmer?
